Home Equity Conversion Mortgage Client Counseling Session Packet

IMPORTANT CLIENT NOTICE

All clients must complete all pages in this packet. Please return the completed packet to this agency either in person or by mail. Our mailing address is Affordable Housing Alliance 3535 Rt. 66, Building #4 Neptune, NJ 07753. Should you have any further questions or concerns, please call (732) 389-2958 and ask to speak with Lydia Chomenko.

Please note that there is a $200 fee for counseling regardless if you close on the loan or not. We prefer the $200 be paid at or prior to the counseling session (money order or credit card only please). Alternatively, you can pay a $100 deposit at time of the counseling session and $100 at closing. If you earn less than 200% of the federal poverty level, we will only charge you $125 at the time of closing but proof of income is required. All money paid is nonrefundable.

NOTE: If you have impairment, disability, language barrier, or otherwise require an alternative means of completing this form or accessing information and services about housing counseling, please speak with agency staff about arranging alternative accommodations.

Disclosure Statement & Privacy Policy – HECM Counseling

In addition to providing comprehensive housing counseling services for homebuyers, homeowners and renters, the Affordable Housing Alliance offers the following services and programs: administrative agent services for municipalities; ownership, management and development of affordable for-sale and rental housing; administration of utility assistance programs; administration of housing rehabilitation programs; administration of matching savings account programs; provision of pre-purchase, post-purchase and rental workshops:

Financial support for the Affordable Housing Alliance’s Housing Counseling Program is currently being provided by the following industry partners:

- US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
- Department of Community Affairs (DCA)
- New Jersey Housing Mortgage Finance Agency (NJHMFA)
- Congressional funds through NFMF Program and NeighborWorks America
- Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB)
- Bank of America

Housing Counseling clients are not obligated to use any other product or service offered by this agency, its affiliate or partners. The Affordable Housing Alliance will provide information on alternative services, programs and products. Clients should consider a variety of resources and options and upon evaluation, select the resources that best meet their needs.

The Affordable Housing Alliance is committed to assuring the privacy of clients. We assure you that all information shared both orally and in writing will be managed within legal and ethical considerations. Within the organization, we restrict access to nonpublic personal information to only those employees who need to know the information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your information. Information will only be released to those institutions, companies or agencies who our agency believes can provide assistance to you, or who require it as a condition of the grant awards which make our services possible. We may use anonymous aggregated case file data for the purposes of evaluating our services. The Affordable Housing Alliance follows federal file retention requirements. Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records and all other pertinent records, both electronic and paper, shall be retained for a period of at least three (3) years from the date the case file was terminated for housing counseling or submission of the final expenditure report (whichever is later).

Affordable Housing Alliance HECM Counseling Fee is $200.00. This fee can be paid in full at counseling session. AHA will also accept a $100 nonrefundable deposit and $100 to be paid at closing.

This fee is due regardless if the client receives the reverse mortgage or not. If the client does not receive the reverse mortgage and the fee is a financial hardship they can contact us about a sliding scale payment.

FINANCIAL CAPABILITES COUNSELING/COACHING AUTHORIZATION FORM

1. I understand that the Affordable Housing Alliance (AHA) provides financial capability counseling/coaching after which I will receive a written action plan consisting of recommendations for handling my finances, possibly including referrals to other agencies as appropriate.
2. I understand that AHA is a sub-grantee that submits client-level information to New Jersey Housing Mortgage and Finance Agency (NJHMFA) relating to the Project Reinvest: Financial Capability grant to the NeighborWorks America Data Collection System (DCS), opens files to be reviewed for program monitoring and compliance purposes, and conducts follow-up with clients related to program evaluation.
3. I understand that I may opt-out of this requirement, but proof of this opt-out must be recorded in my client file.
4. I give permission for NJHMFA and/or Project Reinvest: Financial Capability program administrators and/or their agents to follow-up with me within the next three years for the purposes of program evaluation.
5. I acknowledge that I have received a copy of AHA's Privacy Policy.
6. I may be referred to other services of the organization, another agency or agencies as appropriate that may be able to assist with particular concerns that have been identified. I understand that I am not obligated to use any of the services offered to me.
7. A counselor may answer questions and provide information, but not give legal advice. If I want legal advice, I will be referred for appropriate assistance.
